

Cambridge English Language Assessment invites you to join them for a webinar: Planning Teacher Professional Development on Monday 27 April 14.00 - 15.00 (UK time*) and Wednesday 29 April 10.00 - 11.00 (UK time*). This webinar is aimed at anyone interested in planning a programme of continuing professional development, such as teachers, Directors of Studies or Exams Officers.

In this webinar they will give an overview of the Cambridge English Teaching Framework and the research behind it. They'll then demonstrate their new online Teacher Development Tracker - a self-assessment tool for teachers which can be used to develop profiles and identify skills gaps. They'll look at ways of preparing a professional development plan for teachers and trainees and introduce a range of practical ideas and resources for supporting professional development.
