Where are you,my honey

Where are you,my mum

When I'm all in worries

When I need your arm.

When my tears are running

When my laughter's heard

You are near always

Loving me a lot.

You are always hugging

Saying kind word

And I know there is no

Better in the world.

And there is no nicer,

With more kind smile...

Oh, My Lord,I beg you

Save her for a while.

I'll become matured

In the world which's tough

Will be able to give her

More then just my love.
