"My mother!"

I don't know other word,
Which so softly touches a little bit my ear.
I will repeat it more and more,
To make the happiest my mother, dear!
And this word I'll repeat from my birth.
I will live with this word up to death.
If I'll get into difficult case,
I will call and I need dear mommy's face.
My mother, my dear Mom!
You are the most loyal and loving friend,
I feel all your love that you've given to me,
With the warmth of your gentle hand.
These soft mom's hands take care of me,
Since my childhood up to grown-up.
These hands defended me.
From all diseases of the fate,
Through all my life her help I see.

I think you're doing the right thing - writing so magic words about your mother.
