My favourite person is my Mother

My mother's like a sunny summer day. She's lovely and pretty, they say. But for me, my mum is the best And I always choose her from the rest.

She's always there for me when I need it And whenever I'm wrong, she forgives it. My mummy gives me clever advice And she says only truth, never lies.

I adore the smell of her perfume It smells like biscuits and coffee... I'm fond of the way she's walking around And when I see her, I'm very proud.

I promise;I will always love my mum And I'll give her only pleasure, but not harm. My mum is so beautiful and kind That she deserves all happiness in life.

And I believe my mum is like an angel Once came down from the distant heaven My only wish to be with her forever And help her – whatever and whenever.
