Mother's day

My mum was once a girl like me,
She had a mum as well,
That was as busy as a bee,
As everyone can tell.

The girl grew up as years passed,
And now she has two kids.
She gives us all she can and must,
But even puts some lids.

And I will be a mother too
And also have a child.
I'll give him all that I can do,
To keep him smart and mild.

And now I want to say some words
To our mothers. They Should smile and sing like pretty birds
On such a lovely day! http://tea4er.ru/images/fbfiles/files/Erofeeva_TD_Mothers_Day.rar

I don't know "why" but I loved your poem.
The most important words in your poem are.

"And I will be a mother too
And also have a child.
I'll give him all that I can do,
To keep him smart and mild."

Best wishes in it.....and in this contest.
