Mum.

Does anyone love you more than your mum?

Does anyone believe in you more than your mum?

Does anyone support you more than your mum?

All the answers in one: no one

Mum is the most important one.

To my mother's lullabies

I'll never say "good bye".

I'll keep them in heart.

To be a mum is a real art.

Just mum wishes you all the best.

No matter where are you –

In the East or West.

Mum, mum, mum...

I can repeat this word for million times.

'Cos mum is the most loved one.

'Cos mum is the dearest one.

We need her ever, at any time.

I do agree with you that "To be a mum is a real art". Try to support and take care of your mother.

Best wishes.
