Mother's eyes are kind and caring
As she looks at me.
When I'm sad, she's like a fairy
Comes to comfort me.

Mother's hands are silk and gentle
As she touches me.
When I'm cold it's just her handle
That can warm up me.

Mother's voice is nice and charming
As she speaks to me.
It's the music of her laughing
That brings joy to me.

Mother's scent is dear and tender
As she kisses me.
Only I have always felt it
When she passed by me.

Mother's every sense of feeling
Is a precious part.
But of them the one is healing
And it's mother's heart!
