A girl of Victory.

To my dearest mother dedicated.

My Mum likes to remember

With cheerful glee and deep anger

About an unforgettable day

Of spring on the 9-th of May.

...The sun and stars were shining brightly,

Young children ran to be delighted

From house to house informing heartily

About Victory -so long-awaited!

My Mum was lucky to celebrate

Her birthday on this Glorious Date!

A young thin girl -a daughter of war

Became a symbol of Victory and more!

There was a joy which mixed with loss...

Of Mothers ' husbands , sons brave death

Oh! She can't forget those tears and wrath.

To glorify Motherland! Russian women's -oath!

My dear Mum ! The warmest thanks you're worth

The nicest soul on our Earth!

Your hands and heart are so gracious...

I adore your Love, Sincerity and Patience!

I bet to honor Mum's war memories

And try to pass them for centuries.

Long live all mums! The dazzling stars of peace

And blazing lighthouses of seas!

Very nice poem. There are a lot of instructive thoughts in it:

.... I bet to honor Mum's war memories
And try to pass them for centuries.
Long live all mums! The dazzling stars of peace
And blazing lighthouses of seas!.....

I wish you a happy New Year!
Good luck at the contest!!!

Dear Olga Nickolaevna! Thanks for your appreciation of my first poem. I was inspired by my mother's love to writing it.
