Oh! How many fine words

Oh! How many fine words

I want to say to her

When I think about her...

All my best words

And things are for her...

It's my nicest man

In the whole world

It's the most humane man

In the Earth.

You were a true wife

Of all my dad's life

And now you are one

Of the wonderful Grannies for our babies

You have five children

Who loves you very much!

And how you say

We're all for you the light day...

You have sixteen great

Grandsons and granddaughters

And seven amazing

Great-grandsons and great-granddaughters

Oh! How much love

You give us

You are alike dove

Who gives hope, believe

And love to everybody of us...

My mummy! You're very kind

And a beg to forgive my disagreements with my mind.
