My dear mum, how happy I`m with you.
My dear mum, how calm is my heart.
How to say about my love to you?
It`s hard.
It`s not enough to say these simple words.
My head is full of other thoughts:
I feel like a bird in the sky,
When you`re near.
I feel rays of your heart,
Which shine brightly to me.
And I know that ever and just now
You always think about me.
Your eyes, your wrinkles
Warm my soul
Your hands, your smile
Warm my heart.
My dear mummy, be with me
You are the whole world to me.

You're right that our mothers can warm our hearts and souls, because they love us, their children.
Your poem is great!
