My dear, dear mother
I love you very much

Your blue eyes, re so different like skies
In spite of wrinkles when you give smiles.
They can be merry and bright
Have strict and kind sight
Your grandchildren, children grew up
They can help you and cheer up
It seems that problems, re in the past
And for remembrance time comes.

Distant remembrance, re your pain
Childhood, war, flown army plane.
Father left, he went to the war
There was famine and cold so more.
Friendly family – all helped each other
Although dead your father
Troubles went out at last
Love, family, children came fast.

Your remember like birds flying
From the past to the future shine.
I, d like to remember them main
To retell my grandchildren again.
Thank you for all happiness and care for warmness, sympathy and love.
My dear, dear sweet and lovely mother
I love you very much

You've written your lyrical lines with great care, daughter's love and tenderness.
Good luck in the contest!
