My Mother

These loving eyes This tender smile The little rays of wrinkles On mother's face, Oh, stop the time, The stubborn running days!

Your restless hands. Your kind voice, The cradle song for night... Because of you, my Mummy, I remember childhood bright!

You - like a sunny spring for me When dreams are realized. You - my the only support Reliable and nice!

We choose the roads, many ways And for success in strive Forget about home "nests" In search of "paradise"

And you will never take offence My Mother, dear me! I am afraid to miss your wait, The chance to speak, to see....

These loving eyes, This tender smile, These little rays of wrinkles On Mother's face.... Oh, stop the time The stubborn running days.
