DUE RESPECT TO THE VETERANS

Each year World War II veterans are becoming fewer and fewer
And, unfortunately, many people do understand it never.
They don't show proper regrets,
They consider their merits themselves.

After all, thanks to our grandparents and great-grandparents
We still exist.
If they didn't do so much for Russia,
We wouldn't exist.

My grandmother is 81 years old.
She was 10 when the war began.
She had a sister and three brothers in her household,
One of them died at the age of 19 as a best man.

The war parted with two brothers and the eldest sister their household –
There are millions of such stories.
Family, happiness to see adult children, peace existence, and this is not a hold –
These and many other our ancestors donated because of their mores.

And now, the today's generation doesn't realize
How it was difficult for our not numerous veterans.
That's why, people, let's show our due respect for them and realize
That every day lived must bring them only happiness and «a sea of smiles».
